Church Reopening Guidelines

For those that are ready to return to church, this is how it will work:

- Livestream coverage of the morning service will continue until further notice
- Bring your Bible and a mask (Wearing a mask is required as you enter and leave the building, and especially as you sing, if you want to you can remove your mask once you are seated by an usher until singing begins).
- The bathrooms will be available.
- Water bottles will be available (the water fountains are closed).
- Adult Sunday School
 - “The Apostles’ Creed” - taught by Ron Reed | 9:30 AM in the Fellowship Hall (No other Sunday School Classes will be taught in person. They will resume as soon as possible.)
 - The parking lot door will be the ONLY entrance from 9:15 - 9:45 AM.
 - “I, II, III John and Jude” - taught by Tim Faust | Sundays at 7:00 PM on Facebook
- Morning Worship
 - ONLY the north foyer (ramp) doors will be opened from 10:10 - 10:45 AM.
 - Ushers will seat you in family units; children will be sitting with their parents.
 - A Children’s room is open in the balcony for parents to care for their infants and toddlers.
 - PARENTS: Bags with activities for children to do during the sermon are available in the north foyer outside the new library.
 - An offering box will be in each foyer to receive offerings as you arrive.
 - Following the benediction, the congregation will be seated and escorted out by ushers. You may dispose of communion cups as you exit.
